The Little Sisters of the Poor at St. Augustine Home

Since 1873, the Little Sisters of the Poor have cared for thousands of elderly persons with minimal financial resources in central Indiana, regardless of religion or ethnic origin. Today, eight Little Sisters work with over 100 staff members and hundreds of volunteers to provide a loving home for 96 elderly Residents, in independent living apartments, assisted living units, or in nursing care. The Little Sisters operate St. Augustine as a true home, rather than an institution, so that Residents may live in an atmosphere of peace, happiness, and security for their remaining years.

The Little Sisters of the Poor must raise more than half the cost to operate St. Augustine Home each year from donations, and meeting the needs of our Residents is a 24-hour a day responsibility. In the tradition of our Foundress, St. Jeanne Jugan, we beg for the needs of our elderly Residents and trust daily in God's Providence.

To continue to provide quality care to our Residents, we must raise $87 per Resident per day to supplement government funding, or more than $250,000 each month. Our largest expense is the salaries of the nurses and other staff who so lovingly care for our Residents.

While the Sisters have no fixed source of income and must depend daily on the generosity of others for the funds necessary to manage the home, the atmosphere at St. Augustine Home is calm, warm, and serene. Each Sister, volunteer, employee, and donor contributes time, talent, and treasure out of genuine respect and concern for the elderly.

St. Augustine Home is truly a special place. When one Resident was asked what she liked about living in the home, she exclaimed, "Everything!" She continued, "When you come to live with the Little Sisters, you are not going to an 'old people's home.' You are joining a community... It's like a little family."

For over 130 years, the kindness of donors like you has enabled us to offer a home and quality care to thousands of elderly in Indiana. We are deeply grateful, and we pray daily for all those who assist us in our mission.

*Thank you for your support, and God Bless You!!
~ Your Grateful Little Sisters of the Poor*
